 - He is sometimes described as the Lord Himself (Genesis 16:10-13, Exodus 3:2-6, 23:20, Judges 6:11-18), but at other times as one sent by God or bearing God's image.
 - The Lord used this messenger to appear to human beings who otherwise would not be able to see Him and live (Exodus 33:20).
 - The Angel of the Lord performed actions associated with God, such as revelation, deliverance, and destruction; but he can be spoken of as distinct from God (II Samuel 24:16, Zechariah 1:12).

LESSON #8

THE ATTRIBUTES OF THE ANGELS

The number of the angels:

- The number must be very large (I Kings 22:19, Matthew 26:53, Hebrews 12:22).
- Their strength is great in numbers (Psalms 103:20, Revelation 5:2, 18:21).
- Their work is amazing in numbers (Isaiah 6:2-6, Matthew 26:53, Revelation 8:13).

The nature of the angels:

- Angels are termed "spirits," in Hebrews 1:14, but it is not affirmed that the angelic nature is always a bodiless form (Mark 12:25, Colossians 1:16-18, Hebrews 1:7).
 - In fact, the contrary seems to be implied in Luke 20:36 and Philippians 3:21.
 - They appear like man and are always beholding God's face (Matthew 18:10).
- The appearance of angels varies according to circumstances, but is often brilliant and dazzling (Matthew 28:2-7, Acts 1:9-11, Revelation 10:1).
- The office of angels in heaven is only vague in most of the scriptures (I Kings 22:19, Isaiah 6:1-3, Daniel 7:9-10, Revelation 6:11) but they do show us that they have an adoration for God that never ceases.
- Angels are agents of God's providence, natural and supernatural, to the body and soul of humans (Matthew 13:39-49, 16:27, 24:31).
- Artistic portrayals of angels as winged beings are generally without basis in the Bible even though we know they can fly. Only Cherubim, Seraphim, and the living creatures are described as having wings (Exodus 25:20, Isaiah 6:2,6, Ezekiel 1:6, Revelation 4:8).
- Angels do not seem to be omnipotent but are very powerful (I Peter 3:22, Revelation 12:7).
- Angels do not seem to be omnipresent but are very quick (Daniel 9:21-23).
- Angels do not seem to be omniscient but have amazing knowledge (Matthew 24:36, I Peter 1:12).

LESSON #13

CONCLUSION: WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

We can see that angels are not a part of the great commission (Matthew 28:18-20, Mark 16:15-16, Luke 24:44-49). They are not involved in salvation but rejoice when they see sinners repent (Luke 15:10, I Corinthians 4:9). In the book of Acts an angel spoke to Philip not the eunuch (Acts 8:26), and the angel told Cornelius to send for Peter (Acts 10:3, 11:14). The gospel message is in the hands of earthen vessels, not angels (II Corinthians 4:7, Galatians 1:6-9).

The frequency with which angels participate in human affairs seems to have diminished since Pentecost, probably because of two reasons: (1) The Holy Scriptures are given to us by God and (2) There is a larger role played by the Holy Spirit in the lives of Christians. This does not mean the angels are less involved, just allowing the Holy Spirit to guide humans from within (John 16:13, Acts 2:38-39, Romans 8:9-15, I Corinthians 3:16, 6:19, II Corinthians 6:16, Galatians 5:18, Ephesians 5:22-23, II Timothy 1:14, I John 2:27). We are told to be hospitable because we still entertain the angels (Hebrews 13:2). The wicked angels, on the other hand, are probably more active today in order to compete with the work of the church and the power of the Holy Spirit. We should be prepared for spiritual warfare today (Ephesians 6:10-20, Colossians 1:15-16).

We can take comfort knowing that Satan has used the same tactics for over 6,000 years (Genesis 3:6, Luke 4:1-13, I John 2:16). We know that God is on our side (Matthew 28:20, Romans 8:31, Philippians 4:13, Revelation 2:10). While Jesus spoke frequently of angels, both good and bad (Matthew 13:41, 26:53, Mark 8:38, Luke 12:8-9) and their activity in this world, we can know that God will ALWAYS accomplish His will and keep His promises.

Angels are quite real, and they have played and will always play a vital part in God's plan for the world. Demons also have a role in temptation (Ephesians 6:10-20). Above all, we must know God is greater than Satan (I John 4:4). Mankind is blessed above all the angels, especially the fallen angels, because we have a plan of salvation (John 3:16, 14:1-3, II Peter 3:2). We should be thankful for the invitation from Jesus to come unto Him (Matthew 11:28, Revelation 22:17)! Keep studying this interesting topic and trust in God for deliverance!
